

Fletcher Moon's nickname is Half-Moon because he is so short.

He is 12 years old and has a license to be a private detective.

He's well known at school for his detective skills.

When he gets hired by a classmate, things start to go wrong.

It should be an easy case.

Everyone suspects the Sharkey kids.

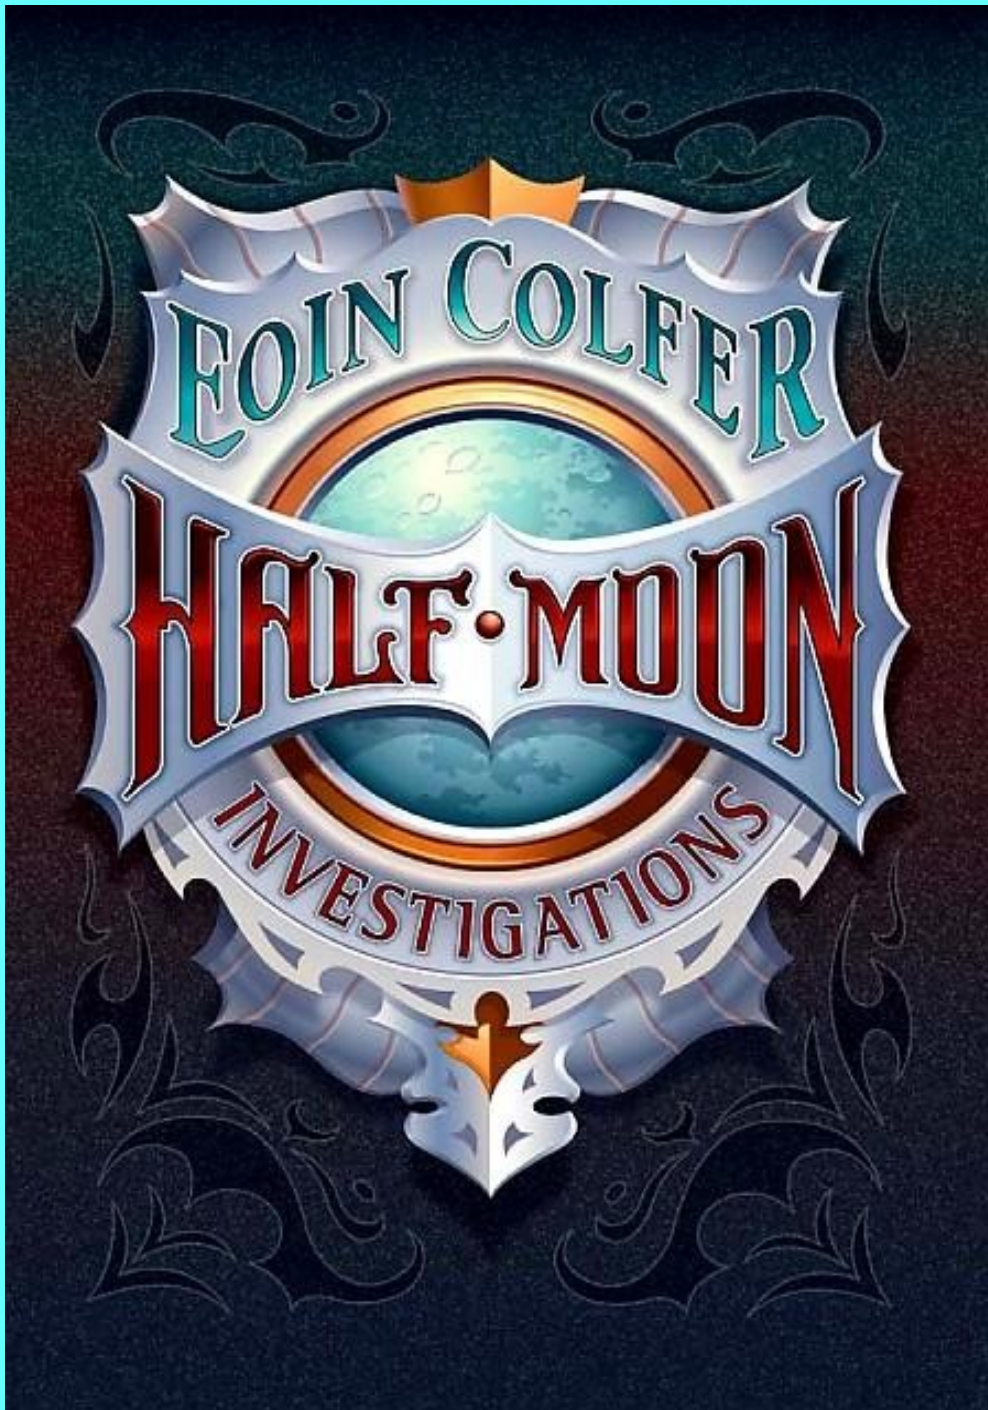

As Half-Moon uncovers clues to a fire, he becomes the suspect.

He can't go home because his folks will ground him.

How will he solve the case when the police are trying to arrest him?

How can he clear his name and prove his innocence?

Half-Moon Investigations

by Eoin Colfer

F Col

290 pages

AR level 4.2